ALDO'S: THE ZAGAT SURVEY'S HIGHEST-SCORING ITALIAN RESTAURANT IN MARYLAND

The aim of a wine catalogue is to make the house's collection of wines as accessible as possible to its Guests. With this in mind, we have arranged most of the wines by varietal rather than by region or country—this arrangement should prove helpful as you make a considered selection of the complete offering of a particular varietal.

Additionally, to assist you further in your selection, we have listed exceptional scores and ratings where applicable—for example:

Wine Spectator* (WS-##pts) | Robert Parker (RP-##pts) | Gambero Rosso (GR-#gls)

A score or rating on a 100-point scale is self-explanatory; Italy's Gambero Rosso employs a rating system of 1, 2 or 3 glasses—with 3 glasses being the highest rating/honor accorded.

Of course, if you would like more information about a particular bottle or if you would like a recommendation, please do not hesitate to ask.

We are always searching for small, quality-conscious producers of outstanding wines—particularly those producers who share our enthusiasm for exceptional representations of some of the relatively obscure or underappreciated varietals of Italy and Southern Italy. As a result of this ongoing effort, our cellars often house new-found bottles that have not yet been listed. If you share our adventurous spirit of discovery, please ask your server about off-the-list wines.

The majority of our selections are informed by a desire to choose elegant, well-balanced wines that complement Chef Aldo Vitale's refined culinary philosophy and delicately-balanced style of cuisine. All of our bottles are stored in below-ground, redwood cellars that are temperature and humidity controlled; we serve wines in only the finest Italian-made crystal stemware, made by Luigi Bormioli.

Fortunately, a rigid formality to pairing food and wine is a relic of the past; however, it nevertheless remains true that a skillful pairing of the two can result in one of life's "Memorable Moments" for an Epicurean. My hope that you enjoy that experience and the extraordinary dining experience that is the hallmark of a visit to "Maryland's Premier Italian Restaurant" is shared by the entire staff.

SALUTE E BUON APPETITO!

SERGIO VITALE
